Friday night is the highlight for 4-H livestock members. They are able to reap additional rewards for their efforts through the 4-H livestock auction.

Carroll County's 4-H Livestock Auction is a premium auction. Dollar values reflect the money the 4-H'er receives above the market value of the animal. All figures quoted are premium money only.

There were 111 buyers who participated in the auction with 179 livestock members selling animals. A total of $37,210 in premiums was paid out.

In appreciation, 4-H members returned a total of $875 in donations to benefit 4-H programs. Another $1,165 was donated for a total of $2,040.

The grand champion steer shown by Ashley Paul brought $1,600 in premium. Buyers were Parrett's Meat Processing, Co-Alliance, Option Tire, Howard & Sons, Monticello NAPA, Broken H Land and Cattle, Herr Farms, Copier Plus, Miller-Roscka Funeral Home, Monticello Eye Center, Brewster Insurance & Indiana Farmers, Kokomo Grain, Dennis and Jean Ann Randle, Lambert Farms, and Carroll County Tire.

Nolan O'Farrell's Grand Champion Barrow received $2,125 in premium. Buyers included: Lafayette Bank & Trust Company, Howard & Sons, Wayne and Cindy Ringer, Baker-Milligan CPAs, Mann Chevrolet-Buick, Yeoman Telephone Company, The Andersons Delphi - Clymers Grain Division, Co-Alliance LLP, Hanenkraft Grain, Delphi Products, Jerry and Lillian Tolley, and Kokomo Grain.

Katelyn O'Farrell's Grand

Champion Sheep sold for a premium of $1,000. Buyers were Yeoman Telephone, First Financial, Co-Alliance LLP, Lafayette Bank & Trust, and Kokomo Grain Co.

The Grand Champion Goat shown by Tara Skelton received $200 in premiums from State Senator Rich McClain and E & K Sales.

All other grand and reserve grand champions are going to the state fair or returning home.
