New K-9 ready for service

Comet staff report

Special Deputy Marion Riggie and his K-9 Udy recently spent five days in Bedford for narcotics training and certification. Riggie and his dog were certified as a Narcotics Detection Dog Team by Master Trainer Michael Johnson. They are certified with the International Police Work Dog Association for methamphetamine, marijuana, hashish, cocaine and heroin.

K-9 Udy is a two-year-old Doberman Pinscher. She is a certified tracker police service dog.

Riggie started Udy's training when she was seven weeks old. They have also trained in Fort Wayne and Northern Michigan.

Udy will replace Annie, the current K-9 dog, when she retires.

Riggie also attended an Operations Outlaws Drug Interdiction seminar while in Bedford.
