Everyone Loves a Parade

Swinging in the breeze

Bill Schock, parade marshal, and his wife, Judy, had the "best seat in the house" at the Independence Day parade on Saturday. Schock, who is chief of the Delphi Tri-Township Volunteer Fire Department, rigged up this swing as a unique way to ride on the fire truck. The temperature Saturday was hot as fire, but a breeze made it a little more comfortable.

Best Float

Delphi United Methodist Church entered this float in the Independence Day parade on Saturday. Promoting the church's Vacation Bible School, "Son Treasure Island," it was judged Best Float. Other winners were: Harold and Josephine Williams, Best Car; Wilbur Jones, Best Tractor; Moore Carriage Rides, Best Animal Group; and Delphi Public Library (Stargazers' cast for "Annie"), Best Walking Group. ### Patriotic float

• CORRECTION •

Delphi Chamber of Commerce - Along with Carroll County Chamber of Commerce and Delphi Main Street - welcome Sand Tones to Carroll County. The picture was misidentified in last week's paper and the Comet apologizes for the error.

ADOPT-A-PET

This nine-month-old male, brown tiger cat is very cuddly. He would be great with kids! For more information, call the Delphi Veterinary Clinic at (765) 564-2606.
