

Carroll grad scores first collegiate TD

Manchester College sophomore Jared Yoder (#89) is seen carrying the ball when Manchester hosted Defiance College recently. Yoder scored his first college touchdown, when reserve quarterback Kyle Henson found him on a four-yard TD pass for the Spartans' only score of the game. Defiance went on to win 19-7. On Sept. 14, Yoder was named offensive player of the game against Olivet. A 2005 graduate of Carroll Jr.-Sr. High School, Yoder is the son of Eric and Laura Yoder. Manchester College photo

DCHS choirs to present annual fall concert

Comet staff report

Delphi Community High School Choirs will present their Fall Choir Concert entitled

NICHOLE RILEY, a student at Delphi Community Middle School, has been accepted into the People to People World Leadership Forum. She will join a select group of students in Washington, D.C., on April 16-22, to earn high school credit while studying leadership.

Riley will examine the characteristics of American leadership during times of national challenge and prosperity. Forum delegates will also participate in small-group discussions and exercises to experience first-hand how successful leaders develop strategies, make decisions, build consensus, and foster change.

Riley was nominated and accepted for the honor based on outstanding scholastic merit, civic involvement, and leadership potential.

The program is coordinated by People to People Student Ambassador Programs to fulfill the vision Dwight D. Eisenhower had for fostering world citizenship when he founded People to People during his presidency in 1956.

"Destination Rock & Roll" on Sunday at 1 and 3 p.m. in the DCCH Little Theatre.

The concert will feature many favorite rock stars, including The Beatles, The Beach Boys, The Jackson 5, The Monkees, Bob Seger, and many others. Performing will be over 100 students who make up the A Cappella Choir, the Girls Choir, and The Entertainers.

Also on the program will be several solos and small groups.

Tickets are available from any choir member or at the door.

Reunions

Delphi Class of '39

The 67-year reunion of the Delphi High School Class of 1939 was held Oct. 7. Eleven graduating classmates had lunch together at The Sportsman Inn, Monticello.

Attending were Louise Christie Hickey of Knoxville, Tenn.; Ralph and Doris Zinn Parks of Avon; Marjorie Clifford and Jack Lentner of Delphi; Pauline Brown Carbaugh of Logansport; Robert Schnepf of Lafayette; Frances Vories Curbox of Monticello; Lois Allbaugh Maxwell, Frances Brown Pullen and Pete Jackson, all of Flora.

Also attending were schoolmate Ruby Oyler Miller, Jane Smith, Mary Schnepf and Joan Jackson.

The next reunion will be held next year on the first Saturday in October at the same place.

DCHS to present The Matchmaker

Comet staff report

Casting is complete and rehearsals for Delphi Community High School Drama Department's presentation of The Matchmaker are well underway. Seventeen students have been spending the last several weeks preparing for the comedy that will be presented Nov. 17, 18 and 19 at the DCCH Little Theatre.

Tickets will go on sale Oct. 30 and may be purchased from any cast or crew member or from stage directors Sara Daly-Brosman and Emily Stone.

The play, by Thornton Wilder, is the story of Dolly Levi (played by Arielle Brosman), a matchmaker who is employed by wealthy merchant Horace Vandergelder (Brenton Hathaway) to help find him a suitable wife. Subsequently, they become involved in a tangled string of hilarious complications involving two of Vandergelder's menial store clerks, a hat shop owner and her young assistant, Vandergelder's niece and her hopeful fiancé as well as cabmen, and even waiters. After everyone gets straightened out romantically, the merchant finds himself to be putty in the hands of the astute Dolly Levi. The Matchmaker is the play from which the popular musical and film Hello Dolly was inspired.

The cast also includes the following students: Andrew Martin, Brett Rogers, Jimmy Reed, Chris Mayfield, Natalie Garrison, Amber Smock, Jenna Buehler, Brittini Ballard, Jeff Crowder, Justin Foster, Brandon Miller, Leigh Replogle, Jenny Maxwell, Lisa Northrup, and Breenana Noonkester. Ann Mears is student director.
