

Zinns married 50 years

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Zinn of Flora celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Oct. 14.

Zinn and the former Mary Ellen Peterson were married Oct. 14, 1956, at the Bringhurst United Methodist Church.

He graduated from Flora High School, and she graduated from Burnettsville High School. They have always lived and been active in the Flora community.

Zinn is co-owner of Zinn Kitchens in Flora and is still active in the cabinet business.

They have three daughters, Teresa Fife (husband: Tony) of Flora, Diane Dzirbik (husband: Dave) of Noblesville, and Jennifer Spesard (husband: Lonnie) of Flora. The couple also has 11 grandchildren.

75th wedding anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Russell D. Jones, former residents of Delphi, will celebrate their 75th wedding anniversary with an open house on Saturday from 3 to 5 p.m. at the Dal-Mar Banquet Hall, 159 E. Lincoln St., Nappanee. The event will be hosted by their daughters, Joan Cassell of West Lafayette and Judy Miller of Lafayette.

Jones and the former Mildred Waltherhouse were married Oct. 24, 1931, in Bourbon, by the Rev. H.E. Swihart.

He worked at RCA in Monticello and she worked in the Delphi High School cafeteria. They both retired in 1976 and returned to the Nappanee area where they now reside.

In addition to their two daughters, the Jones' have a son, William, who is deceased; 13 grandchildren, 24 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

The couple requests that gifts be omitted; but cards would be appreciated.

This week, I wrap up my series of recipes from Flora Presbyterian Church Heavenly Delights with a sweet finale. To purchase these recipes (and 389 others for $15), contact: Ann Brown (967-3261), Jackie Davis (967-3807) or Ava McGill (967-3793), all members of the cookbook committee.

Ann Brown turns sweetened condensed milk into caramel pie. Amy Clawson's Crazy Lemon Cake is a moist, sweet-tart delight. Eunice Lowery will have you breaking off a piece of her Kit Kat Bars. And, for you calorie counters out there, John Helvie offers up his recipe for Splenda Fruit Pie.

Don't forget to buy your cookbook. Happy eating!

Ann Brown's Easy Caramel Pie

1 baked 10-inch pie shell
2 cans sweetened condensed milk
whipped cream or whipped topping

Cover cans of condensed milk with hot water in a large pot. Boil for 3 hours. Make sure cans are always covered with water. Cool until just slightly warm. Open and pour the caramel filling into the baked pie shell. Refrigerate overnight. Top with whipped cream before serving.

Amy Clawson's Crazy Lemon Cake

1 lemon supreme cake mix
4 eggs
1 pkg. instant lemon pudding
3/4 C. canola oil
3/4 C. water
Glaze
2 C. powdered sugar
1/3 C. lemon juice
2 T. water
2 T. softened butter

Blend pudding mix, eggs, oil and water together until mixed well. Add cake mix and bake as directed on box. While cake cools, blend together powdered sugar, lemon juice, 2 T. water and butter. Stir all ingredients together to form a glaze. Using a fork, make holes in the top of baked, slightly cooled cake. Pour glaze over cake.

Eunice Lowery's Kit Kat Bars

Keebler Club or Waverly crackers
2 C. graham cracker crumbs
1/2 C. margarine
1/3 C. white sugar
1 C. brown sugar
1/2 C. milk
1/2 C. chocolate chips
1/2 C. butterscotch chips
2/3 C. smooth or crunchy peanut butter

Mix graham cracker crumbs, margarine, white sugar, brown sugar and milk in a heavy pan. Bring to boil and cook 5 minutes. Stir constantly as it burns easily. Cover bottom of 9x13-inch pan with crackers (may have to cut the crackers with scissors for the last row to fit). Pour half of cooked mixture over crackers. Put another layer of crackers over mixture. Add last half of cooked mixture. Add another layer of crackers. Melt chocolate chips, butterscotch chips and peanut butter and spread over top layer of crackers. Let cook before cutting into bars.

John Helvie's Splenda Fruit Pie

2 deep dish crusts, your own recipe or frozen
1 C. fresh cranberries (can omit if you like)
4 lg. Granny Smith apples, peeled, cored and sliced (or any other fresh fruit of your choice)
1/2 C. Splenda granular
1 T. all-purpose flour
1/2 tsp. ground cinnamon
Coarsely chop cranberries. Add apples, Splenda, flour and cinnamon. Mix all filling ingredients together in a medium bowl. Place filling in prepared pie crust, place second crust on top, seal and crimp edges. Brush crust with milk for browning. Place in preheated oven and bake 50 to 60 minutes until crust is golden.

Burlington woman is honored as DAR State Regent

State Regent K. Cynthia Thompson Stout, associate member of the Charles Carroll Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution, was recently honored at a reception hosted by the General James Cox Chapter of Howard County.

Harpist Kathryn Trout and flutist Kathryn Carter, Stout's daughter, entertained the attendees. Granddaughters, Cassie and Kelly Ann Carter served as hostess and guest registrar. Family, friends and members from DAR chapters throughout Indiana attended the event held at the Kokomo Country Club on Sept. 30.

The DAR National Headquarters complex occupies an entire city block near the White House in Washington D.C. It was there in July that Stout was installed as the State Regent of Indiana, the highest office of the DAR in the State.

During her three-year term the theme will be "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint." Isaiah 40:30. The symbol for the administration is the eagle.

Stout and her husband, Allen L. Stout, reside near Burlington. They are the parents of three adult children, Kathryn "Kathy" Carter (husband: Jeffrey) of Burlington area, Katrina Rathbun

Scrabble Scrimmage to raise funds for literacy programs

Comet staff report

Game and word lovers are preparing to shake their tile bags and rack their brains during the First SCRABBLE Scrimmage for Literacy. The event will be held Nov. 2 at 6 p.m. in the Delphi Community High School Commons.

The general public, families, businesses, churches, and organizations can participate by creating teams of up to four players to benefit adult literacy programs and the Carroll County Literacy Grant Fund. Family teams are $25 and other teams are $40. Teams must pre-register. All monies raised during the scrimmage will help Carroll County Advocates for Literacy, Inc. continue their efforts of wiping out illiteracy in Carroll County.

Carroll County Advocates for Literacy, Inc. provides free confidential literacy tutoring to any adult in Carroll County. This year the organization has also created a grant fund for organizations and schools to promote literacy projects in the county.

For further information or to request a registration form for the SCRABBLE Scrimmage, contact Jennifer McNeany at 765-490-2650.

Benefit concert for MDA

The air will be filled with music as Kandi L. Magner, accompanied by the Central Catholic High School Choir, performs a charity concert to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Magner is a graduating senior from Indiana University Purdue University Fort Wayne with a BA in Theatre, Dance, and Performing Arts.

The concert will take place at Central Catholic High School's McHale Gymnasium on Oct. 22 at 7 p.m.

Admission is free. All donations will benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

The performance will include a selection of 16 pieces from Magner's musical repertoire, and six duets performed with Central Catholic Choral Director, Julie Dennison.
