A Gold Mine in Bedroom Drawers

Newswire: People are selling their old scrap gold that is gathering dust for its cash value because gold prices are so high. With the price of gold at a 25 year high (over $650.00 per ounce), it makes sense. ScrapGold.com, a gold recycler, offers free insured recycle kits so people may cash in their scrap with 24 hour service and guarantee satisfaction. They accept broken and outdated items like chains, charms, rings and more. "Everyone has bits of gold just lying around which can be turned into cash" says Richard Zakroff, VP of marketing. "Even old dental gold has value." ScrapGold.com processes over 10,000 recycle Kits per month. People can get a free GoldKit at 1-800-283-4700 or ScrapGold.com.

State DNR Leaf Line is now open

Comet staff report

It's that time of year again when Mother Nature turns all of our Indiana landscape into a brilliant show of color. Again this year the DNR's division of forestry and division of communication have combined to let you know how the colors are progressing.

And in case you'd like to know why the leaves are turning, go to the DNR's fall page on the Web and see "Rainbow on the Bough." It's at www.dnrfall.com. Just click on the "leaf colors" button and there you are.

Or, if you would like to see for yourself how the leaves are doing, from the comfort of your armchair, log on to the Office of Tourism Leaf Cam. You can find it from the same DNR fall page. Or dial 317-232-4002 and find out what the leaves are doing in your neck of the woods.

Coat drive at Flora Log Cabin

With the rapidly changing seasons, winter will soon be arriving.

The beauty of the season brings colder temperatures for all; however, some families cannot afford coats and boots to protect them and their children from the chill of the season.

Stephen Siwinski is sponsoring a coat and boot collection at the Log Cabin in the Flora Community Park.

Gently used, clean winter coats and boots will be accepted for donation at the 1834 Log Cabin now through Oct. 31, with a distribution date and place to be announced. The donated items will be for families in Flora, Delphi, and surrounding areas.

All sizes of coats and boots are being accepted. A drop off container is located at the front door of the cabin. It is checked twice daily for donations.
