

Library

Flora-Monroe Township

Return the Borrowed Books Week starts tomorrow (Thursday) and runs through March 7. This is your chance to return any borrowed books (that haven't gone to collection) and have the fines forgiven. Just bring in non-perishable goods in exchange for the fine. The non-perishable goods will be donated to the Carroll County Food Pantry.

The Cabin Fever adult winter reading program ends March 10. It is not too late to join and receive some fun prizes. Through the program participants have received prizes including celebrating Valentine's Day, Mardi Gras, and the Chinese New Year. Don't miss out on all the fun! Register for this free program at the main desk.

"Basic Internet" is tomorrow (Thursday) at 10 a.m. The ability to use a mouse is required. Learn how to use search engines and web addresses to retrieve the information you need.

Do you feel like you're the last person without an email address? Learn how to sign up for a free email account. The class will also provide instruction on how to compose, send, and reply to messages. "Introduction to Email" is March 8 at 10 a.m.

The computer classes are part of the Cabin Fever adult winter reading program. Registration is required. Sign up for the free classes at the main desk or call the library, 967-3912.

During our next storytime we will celebrate spring. The birds are singing, the plants are green, the bees are buzzing, the sun is shining - it's time for spring! Storytime is Tuesday mornings at 10 a.m.

Delphi Public

Friends of Delphi Public Library will host the annual winter book sale on March 3 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. A special preview sale will be March 2 from 4 to 8 p.m. for Friend members. Included in the sale is a wide assortment of fiction and non-fiction books, children books, videos and music CDs. Anyone interested in joining the Friends should call the library for information.

The March 10 Coffee Beat will feature the band Southern Oblivion at 7 p.m. Come and enjoy the sounds of the Beatles, Bob Dylan and the blues and the folk who inspired them. Coffee and music are free, but bring spare change for dessert.

Evening Book Club will discuss the Oprah endorsed novel "Night" March 21 at 7 p.m. A scholarly teenager is wracked with guilt at having survived the horror of the Holocaust and the genocidal campaign, which consumed his family. Matt Parmer will lead the discussion. Multiple copies of the book are available at the main circulation desk.

Morning Book Club will meet March 23 at 9 a.m. "The Last Reunion" will be discussed by authors Doctors Daniel and Mary Ann Nusbaum. The couple worked on the novel for three years while living on a yacht in the Fijian Islands.

Call (765) 564-2929 for information about library programs.

4-H

members and parents are invited to Junior Pork Day

Comet staff report

Evaluating pork cuts, reading ear notches and preparing show pigs for the ring are all topics that will be covered at Purdue University's Junior Pork Day 2007.

First and second-year 4-H swine project participants and their parents are encouraged to attend from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on March 3 in the Lilly Hall of Life Sciences building on Purdue's West Lafayette campus. The event also is open to all 4-H members.

"This program helps students and their parents have a better understanding of purchasing, feeding and nutrition, and taking care of their animal," said Clint Rusk, Purdue Extension livestock specialist. "We will teach the kids basic selection and what to look for when they are choosing their project pigs."

In addition to teaching participants about show animals, Junior Pork Day also will educate participants about how to be smarter consumers of pork products.

"Not only are the 4-H members raising swine, but they are also consumers of pork products," Rusk said. "We will educate them on choosing bacon, pork chops, ham, etcetera from the grocery store, because not all of those products are the same. We want them to be better informed."

Participants will be divided into three groups that will rotate sessions throughout the day. The sessions will be led by Purdue livestock experts.

Each group also will have the opportunity to evaluate three classes of swine, as well as three classes of retail pork cuts.

Door prizes and awards, sponsored by the Crossbred Classic, Indiana Swine Associations and the National Swine Registry, will be handed out near the end of the program.

Registration is $5 and will begin at 8 a.m. in the lobby of Lilly Hall. Lunch will be provided.
