Oracles slip to 2-6

It was a tough weekend for the Delphi Oracles baseball team. They lost to Frankfort Friday night and a double header at Taylor on Saturday.

At Frankfort, the Oracles jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the first inning. The Oracles could not sustain the lead. Andrew Flora and Michael Myers led the Oracle offense with two hits apiece. Kyle Bender took the loss on the mound, allowing only six hits and one earned run.

At Taylor, in game one the Oracles got only one hit from catcher Coy Pennington. Andrew Cebulla took the loss on the mound, allowing only five hits on three runs. The Taylor pitcher had 17 strikeouts.

In game two the Oracles fought back and lost 11-6. Myers had four hits in four trips. He had two triples and two singles. Dustin Oliver picked up the loss on the mound.

The Oracles are now 2-6 on the season and will begin Hoosier Conference play this week against Twin Lakes.

EDUCATION NEWS

STERLING CARTER of Flora has been elected to the Wabash College chapter of Phi Beta Kappa national honorary society.

The oldest American fraternity, Phi Beta Kappa was founded at the College of William and Mary in 1776. The Wabash chapter, Beta of Indiana, was founded in 1898 and each year elects as members students of good moral character and exceptionally high academic accomplishment.

Carter, an English/theater double major, is the son of Byron and Wyndham Carter of Flora. He is a senior.

RACHEL ATCHISON of Flora, a freshman at William Woods University in Fulton, Mo., received a Student Academic All-Stars Council Outstanding Freshman Award at the university's co-curricular honors banquet April 18. An equestrian science major, she is the daughter of Michael and Susan Clark.

The Outstanding Student Awards are the only awards bestowed on students by the nomination and vote of other students. Nominees must demonstrate academic achievement, campus and community involvement and leadership.

Atchison is a member of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority, the Western Club, Campus Activities Board and participates in Up Til Dawn which raises funds for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

Her community service includes volunteering at a Fulton nursing home, raising money and awareness for CARD-V (Coalition Against Rape and Domestic Violence), volunteering at the Take Back the Night awareness event and participating in campus blood drives.

KATHERINE COHEE of Burlington has been inducted into the Indiana University Kokomo chapter of Alpha Chi National Honor Society. Faculty members nominate students in their discipline for Alpha Chi membership and nominees must place in the top 10 percent of their class academically. Cohee is majoring in nursing.

LINDSAY STILLER, a senior at Carroll, has been named a regional finalist in the Indianapolis Star's selection of Academic All-Stars.

From all the nominees across the state, 40 Academic All-Stars were named and 48 regional finalists. The state was divided into five regions, and Stiller is one of six finalists in Region B.

Selection for Academic All-Stars is based on academics, community service, and leadership.

Stiller is the daughter of Bob and Becky Stiller of Flora.

Learning how to be leaders

Camp Tecumseh hosts Rotary Leadership Conference

Emerging leaders from all across northern Indiana gathered last weekend at the Tecumseh Leadership Center for the 22nd annual Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA) Seminar. One hundred twenty high school sophomores and juniors worked on key leadership qualities such as communication, resourcefulness, determination, and enthusiasm as Camp Tecumseh facilitators immersed them in a wide array of problem-solving simulations.

"We really learned to communicate better," commented Delphi Community High School sophomore Kari Lake. "We had to learn to work together, especially learning to listen and to consider each person's ideas. Through practice we became much more successful. It was also amazing how we could get to know so many people from all the other schools."

Kaila Hostetter, a DCHS sophomore has this to say, "I really learned the power of encouragement and how important that is for leaders to do. One of the guys was having a really difficult time with one of the challenges and we kept encouraging him. He finally made it! Later in the day when we were recapping, he said that encouragement 'made his day' and he could not have succeeded otherwise. I will remember that when I'm leading in the future."

"I learned that anyone can be a leader and I learned that I can be a leader," added Nickoli Kauffman, a DCHS sophomore. "Until this experience, I never really thought of myself as a leader. But now I have a lot more confidence and know that I can step up and help a group be successful using some of the things I have learned. I also realized that you do not always have to be in charge. You can help lead from within a group, not just from the front. This was a great opportunity, and I'm really appreciative of the Rotary Club allowing me to be part of it."

Jack Cross, a Delphi Rotarian and businessman, has been RYLA chairman for 21 years. In addition to use of the Camp Tecumseh staff and leadership facilities, Cross has gathered a diverse cadre of motivational speakers to spur the participants to new levels of school and community service.

"If anyone feels negatively about today's young people they should just come out to the RYLA program and see the positive side of the youth picture," Cross explained. "Both the RYLA participants and the dynamic Camp Tecumseh staff will give you new assurance that our future is bright."
