

Boys' and Girls' State participants

Delegates and alternates from Delphi Community High School have been chosen to attend Hoosier Boys and Girls State programs in June at Indiana State University in Terre Haute. The week-long program provides students firsthand insight into the rights and responsibilities of citizens in Indiana through participation in a mock election process. Pictured are (left to right): Front – Delegates Matt Lewis and Shane Evans and alternates Brenton Hathaway and Alex Conner. Back row, l-r, are delegates Emily Kayser and Kylee German, alternates Michael Myers and Jeff Crowder, and delegates Kyle Bender, Koby Sieber, Amanda Spurgeon, Kristina Barnard and Amanda Schultz. Rossville soccer hosting British Soccer Camp

Challenger British Soccer Camp for ages 3 to 18, novice and experienced, will run June 18-22 at the Rossville Town Park. Each child will be coached by a member of the British staff. During the week of camp, the staff will hold a free coaching clinic for parents and coaches at the Rossville Town Park. The clinic will be from 7-8:30 p.m. on June 19 and will cover such areas as organization of practices, systems of play, and technical & tactical drills.

Camp applications are available online at www.challenger-sports.com, or can be picked up at the Carroll County YMCA, Frankfort Boys and Girls Club, Soccer Central in West Lafayette, and the Rossville Community Library.

For more information on camp or to register for the free coaches clinic, contact Allison Holden at 765 379-9353 or ajholden@geetel.net.
