Women volunteers to build Habitat home

Comet staff report

Habitat for Humanity of Lafayette, the YWCA Women's Cancer Program and an all-women volunteer crew are partnering to build a home during this year's Women's Breast Cancer Awareness Build 2007. The public is invited to the Women's Breast Cancer Awareness Build groundbreaking event at 8 a.m. on Saturday at 133 Wise Drive in Bristol Park, Lafayette.

The Women Build program brings women from all walks of life together to learn construction skills and use those skills to be part of the solution to poverty housing. This Women Build project will add to the more than 800 Habitat houses built by women crews throughout the country.

Mitzi Barnett, the Women Build spokesperson, will help kick-off the build. Additionally, the YWCA Women's Cancer Program will share about breast cancer awareness. The future Habitat homeowner, the Michelle Wagner family, will also be present.

The purpose of this partnership between Habitat of Lafayette and the YWCA is not only to build a house in partnership with a qualified Habitat homeowner, but to raise awareness about breast cancer issues and services offered in the community.

The house is slated to be dedicated in early October during Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

Library

Delphi Library Friends

Teenagers laughed, danced and had a good time at the library Friday night as they participated in Dance Dance Revolution and Guitar Hero. The Play Station games were purchased by the Friends of the Delphi Library and hosted by Marcia Sledd and the library's teen advisory board.

The object of Dance Dance Revolution is to match arrows and timing of the music while dancing on a pad. Guitar Hero lets youth play music along with computer images like a rock star.

Tee shirts were provided for all youth participants. Funds for the program were generated from the twice-yearly library book sales and private donations.

The fall book sale will be Aug. 11 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., with member preview Aug. 10 from 4 to 8 p.m.

For information about becoming a Friend contact Jayne Abbott at (765) 564-3739.

Flora-Monroe Township

Our summer reading program, "It's All About the Circus!" has closed its tents for the season. We've had a great summer with almost 400 people participating in the reading extravaganza. Flora Library hosted lots of great programs including the kickoff at Carroll Elementary with Silly Safaris and Jungle John.

We experienced Stevens Puppets famous marionettes, the library got "noisy" with Charlie "the Noise Guy" Williams, and the program room became an art studio the month of June with our free art classes. Summer reading ended with an exciting book release party of "Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows," by J. K. Rowling.

Lots of people in the community have helped make our program so fantastic. The programs were sponsored with a generous donation from the Beta Alpha Chapter of Psi Iota Xi, Flora, with additional support provided by the Flora Lions Club.

The free art classes were made possible with grants provided by the Tippecanoe Arts Federation and the Carroll County Community Foundation. Delphi Dairy Queen and Indiana Beach provided additional prizes. A big thank you to all of our incredible sponsors!

The Saturday Morning Book Club meets this Saturday at 10 a.m. to discuss the 2007 Carroll County on the Same Page selection, "The Glass Castle," by Jeannette Walls.

Children can hear stories 24 hours a day on the library's Dial-A-Story phone line, 967-3814.
