Florence Bell to be 100

Florence Bell
 Florence Thomas Bell will celebrate her 100th birthday at an open house hosted by her family.

The event will be Aug. 11 from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Deer Creek Community Center. Mrs. Bell was born Aug. 12, 1907. One of six children, her parents were Lewis and Carrie Thomas. She has two living sisters, Agnes Hanson of Kokomo and Edna Trueb of Logansport. Three brothers are deceased.

She spent most of her childhood in the Burlington area. Her first school was a one-room schoolhouse called "Possum Trot." She said they carried water and all drank from one cup. After attending there for two years, she went to the Koro school to complete grade school.

Delphi Art Club announces Art Show

Delphi Art Club will once again present its annual art show in the rotunda and lounge of the Carroll County Courthouse Aug. 8-11, during Old Settlers.

This year the club is featuring the artwork of its newest members - Janie Szczepanski, Carol Wicklund, Marge Bothof, Jan Bell, and Tracy Bookmiller.

The show will also have more categories this year. Oil painting, acrylic painting, watercolor, photography, wood burning, china painting, and gourds will be exhibited, along with some surprises.

Members are to bring their artwork and help set up the flats for the show on Tuesday at 8:30 a.m. All work must be hung by 10 a.m. Wednesday in order for the judging to be completed by noon.

The show will be judged by Martin Gerbens. He lived in Saipan and other countries for some time before returning to the U.S. He has an M.L.I.S. from Indiana University, an M.F.A. from Purdue, and a B.A. in Fine Arts from Purdue. He recently moved back to Delphi.

Those attending are asked to vote for their favorite art entry. The People's Choice awards will be given at the end of the show.

The club is open to interested artists in and around the community. For more information on joining, talk to one of the officers or a member of the club during the show.

We Care

When you have a sick child, it's hard to tell who is more frightened ... you or your child. Everyone in our hospital will work to get your child well and home as quickly as possible.
