

SIA Foundation accepting grant applications

Comet staff report

The SIA Foundation is currently accepting grant applications from Indiana not-for-profit organizations that are seeking funding for capital projects in the areas of arts and culture, health and welfare, or education.

Grant applications must be postmarked no later than Sept. 30 to be considered for grants that will be awarded in December. The SIA Foundation typically funds capital needs between $1,000 and $7,000.

Indiana nonprofit organizations interested in applying must meet the following criteria:

- Funding must be used for investments in facilities, equipment or real estate rather than for operational funding. •Applying organizations must be either tax-exempt under the Internal Revenue Code Section 501 with a chapter office in Indiana, an educational institution in Indiana, or an Indiana governmental or quasi-governmental entity.

In 2007, the SIA Foundation celebrates 10 years of charitable giving. Since 1997, $443,000 in capital grant funding has been awarded to 125 Indiana not-for-profit organizations.

The SIA Foundation accepts applications for funding from Tippecanoe County and each of its bordering counties, including Carroll, along with 13 other counties.

Information and grant application materials are available through the SIA Foundation website, www.siafoundation.org, or by calling 765-449-6565.

This week I conclude my series on corn recipes. Corn relish is sweet and crunchy and tastes better than even the best salad bar staple. Can some extra to give as holiday gifts. Pickled Corn is a tasty refrigerator treat. Its ingredients may sound a little strange, but you'll love the way it tastes. And, finally, Corn Silk Tea is a natural diuretic. Okay, I've never tried this, but a lady I know, who wishes to remain anonymous, says it's wonderful. Dry, bag and store silks for wintertime use.

Corn Relish

- 8 C. fresh corn
- 3 C. chopped sweet onion
- 1/2 C. chopped green pepper
- 1/2 C. chopped red pepper
- 3/4 C. packed brown sugar
- 1/2 C. white corn syrup
- 7 tsp. salt
- 1 T. dry mustard
- 3 C. cider vinegar

Mix all ingredients thoroughly in a large saucepan. Cover and boil for 15 minutes, stirring often. Pour into clean hot pint jars, leaving half inch of headroom. Process in a boiling water bath for 15 minutes. Remove jars and complete seals if necessary. Yields 4 to five pints.

Pickled Corn

- 1 C. sugar
- 1/2 C. honey
- 2 C. white vinegar
- 1 1/2 C. water
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1 tsp. celery seed
- 1/2 tsp. mustard seed
- 1 medium onion, sliced
- 4 ears sweet corn, cut in one-inch pieces

In a large saucepan, combine everything but corn. Bring to a boil and cook for 2 minutes. Add corn. Reduce heat and simmer for 5-10 minutes or until corn is tender. Remove from heat and cool to room temperature. Refrigerate until well chilled.

Corn Silk Tea

- 1 handful of corn silk, washed gently
- 1 C. boiling water
- 1 tsp. honey
- 1 tsp. lemon juice

Place corn silk in a cup and pour boiling water over it. Let stand for five minutes, strain. Add honey and lemon juice before drinking.

Local photo in 'Country' magazine

A photo of a Carroll County farm scene is in the August/September issue of "Country" magazine.

Gail Seest of Mulberry, who took the photo and submitted it to the magazine, said the location was just northeast of Paint Creek Cemetery. The photo is an aerial view of farmers baling straw.

Seest said the photo was taken on July 6, 2005. She and her husband, Mark, took her father, Tom Baker's 1941 J3 Piper Cub out for a flight that day.

"We decided to combine it with a little bit of fun - picture taking and practicing our tail-wheel/flying skills," Seest said.

"We had taken off from the Flora Airport and flew north-easterly, and had been practicing some aerial maneuvers. It was just a lucky picture, as the timing was just right to get them all in the picture from the moving airplane."
