PRICES EFFECTIVE MON., SEPTEMBER 3 - SUN., SEPTEMBER 9, 2007

It's September and I just can't help but think about apples and recipes that go along with them. My favorite apple recipe, hands down, came from my Granny. Spirals of flaky pastry, stuffed with tart apples and cinnamon and covered with a sweet sauce. It's the best apple cobbler I've ever tasted. To be honest, my son Blake has mastered the technique much better than his mom. My rendition never came close to Granny's. His is right on the money. Make sure you use a tart cooking apple for this recipe. It holds up much better, offering a nice texture without being mushy. I'm also including a recipe for Chocolate Apple Snack Cake. It's a from-scratch cake that takes minutes to make. You can choose to frost it if you like, but I like it best plain. Happy eating.

2 C. water
1 1/2 C. self-rising flour
1/2 C. shortening
