

SALLY KULUPKA of Delphi and WENDY STILLER of Flora have been named to the University of Evansville dean's list for outstanding academic achievement during the fall 2007 semester.

KELSIE THORNBURG and MATTHEW MOREHOUSE, seniors at Carroll Jr.-Sr. High School, are winners of this month's High Five Award, given by News Channel 18.

Selection is based on five points of achievement, with an emphasis on effort: Academics, athletics, mental attitude, leadership, and community service.

Students are nominated by school administrators or teachers, and are featured for a month on Channel 18. The winners change each month as the award rotates among schools in the Channel 18 viewing area.

Kelsie is ranked in the top half of her class and has continued to improve her grades each semester of high school. She has been a French Club officer and Junior Leader officer for two years, and has been in 4-H for three years. Kelsie has participated in wrestling for two years and was wrestling manager for two years. According to her nomination, she is a dependable worker in the school office. She has been active in the Habitat for Humanity program, and helped organize a Habitat for Humanity trip to Louisiana for students during Spring Break.

Matthew has been a Top Scholar all four years of high school and ranks in the top ten of his class. He participated in soccer for two years and wrestling two years, and was captain of the wrestling team his freshman year. He is a member of National Honor Society and serves on the school's Attendance Committee. According to his nomination, he is a hardworking student and has a goal of becoming a pharmacist. He volunteers as a junior fireman and has done other volunteer work in Jackson Township.

CJHS players are honored

Carroll 7th and 8th grade boys' basketball teams recently held an awards banquet. Most improved and mental attitude awards were presented for both teams. Recipients were, from left: Jarrid Robertson, 8th most improved; Daniel Huckstep, 8th mental attitude; Logan Gaines, 7th most improved; and Brian Keith, 8th mental attitude. The 7th grade A-team finished with a 10-6 record, while the B-team went undefeated with a perfect 11-0 record. The 8th grade's records were 11-9 for the A-team and 5-2 for the B-team. Photo provided guard's aggressive play at both ends of the court woke up the Lady Cougars. Quinci Eller hit a pair of 3-pointers, Jess Yoder turned two offensive rebounds into lay ups and Morgan Yoder added a free throw for an 11-3 Carroll run. With 1:07 left in the first quarter Carroll trailed just 14-11 and the Lady Cougars' large following started to believe. Oak Hill finished the quarter with a 5-2 run, but the Lady Cougars were still in the game, trailing just 19-13.

"Carroll has a nice team," Law said. "They played very, very well over the last four or five minutes of the first quarter. They played us head-to-head. And Carroll is a young team with a very good coach. They have a great future."

The second quarter didn't go so well for the Lady Cougars. Oak Hill scored the first nine points of the quarter for a 28-13 advantage and never looked back. Pickering had seven quarter before being outscored 16-8 in the final period to force overtime, where the Rebels took control hitting .889 percent (8-of-9) of their own foul shots in the contest.

The Oracle JV falls to 13-6 on the season, but has won 8 of its last 10 games.

Dustin Salyer led Delphi with 14 points, including 4-of-5 from 3-point range, with Paul Zink adding 13. Tanner Cripe finished with 7, A.J. Erskin 5 and Kris Bender and Seferino Cervantes had 4 apiece.

Delphi closed the regular season Tuesday night (too late for print) hosting Clinton Central (7-11), with a complete game report to appear in next week's Comet edition.
