Camden Public

The library's "Winter into Spring" Reading Program has 15 members. On March 25, the midway point, the group had an afternoon get-together. Judie Peters presented a book review.

The program runs through April 25 and there is still time to sign up.

Children are invited to Storytime which is held each Thursday afternoon at 4. 14J library-Flora

April is designated as National Poetry Month. There are seven goals for the observance: to highlight the extraordinary legacy and ongoing achievement of American poets; to introduce more Americans to the pleasures of reading poetry; to bring poets and poetry to the public in immediate and innovative ways; to make poetry a more important part of the school curriculum; to increase the attention paid to poetry by national and local media; to encourage increased publication, distribution, and sales of poetry books; and to increase public and private philanthropic support for poets and poetry.

The library is celebrating National Poetry Month by inviting fourth grade students from Carroll Elementary School to recite James Whitcomb Riley poems on our Dial-A-Story. Presently Cole Hickner can be heard reading the poem, "The Idiot." Friday the featured student will be Bradi Rhine performing, "Little Girl, Two Little Girls." Call Dial-A-Story 24 hours a day, 967-3814.

The winners of the prize drawing for the Winter Reading Program, "Cool Reads!" are Elizabeth Kauffman and Margaret Schenck. They both won a snowman prize pack filled with goodies. Congratulations to the winners and all of our winter readers.

The theme for the next storytime is "Spring!" Come join us for fun stories, fingerplays, and flannel board stories. Storytime is Tuesday mornings at 10 a.m.

Named to K-T team

Carroll senior Jacob Craig was named to the Kokomo Tribune's All-Area Third Team for basketball.

A forward, Craig led the Cougars in scoring with 11.9 points per game. He averaged 5.8 rebounds per game and 1.8 blocked 16 shots.

The Cougars finished the season with a 10-13 record and a Class 2A Sectional Championship.

Comet staff report

Spring is here and the Grissom Air Museum is open for the 2008 season. As the weather warms up come out for a stroll through the airpark and check out the museum's newest acquisitions, a top secret, supersonic D-21 drone, and a BA53 thermonuclear bomb.

Stand next to a safe training version of the most powerful weapon ever deployed by the United States inside the museum. This is the same bomb that was carried by the B-58 Hustlers stationed at Grissom during the 1960s. Tours of the D-21 are available Wednesdays and Saturdays at 1:30 p.m. until the aircraft is displayed inside the museum.

Many activities are planned for the museum in 2008. The museum will kick off with the Veteran Lecture Series May 14. Too often the brave men and women who serve this country are taken for granted; this is an opportunity to hear their stories firsthand. The free evening lectures are open to the public and families are encouraged to attend. For more information on the lecture series call the museum or check out our website for details.

Free admission is offered on Memorial Day, May 26.

Completes basic training

Navy Seaman Recruit Jonah E. Brown recently completed U.S. Navy basic training at Recruit Training Command, Great Lakes, Ill.

During the eight-week program, Brown completed a variety of training that included classroom study and practical instruction on naval customs, first aid, firefighting, water safety and survival, and shipboard and aircraft safety. An emphasis was also placed on physical fitness.

The capstone event of boot camp is "Battle Stations," an exercise that gives recruits the skills and confidence they need to succeed in the fleet. "Battle Stations" is designed to galvanize the basic warrior attributes of sacrifice, dedication, teamwork and endurance in each recruit through the practical application of basic Navy skills and the core values of honor, courage and commitment.

Brown, a 2005 graduate of Delphi Community High School, is the son of Jo E. and Greg E. Brown of Delphi.

Parents will also get a break this summer. Kids are encouraged to spend quality time with mom and dad by bringing them out on Mother's or Father's Day and for free admission.

Car enthusiasts will once again have the rare opportunity to park with the planes during the 2008 Warbirds Cruise-in! The car show will be Aug. 2. Call or check Grissom's website for details.

Grissom Air Museum is located 15 miles north of Kokomo on US 31. The museum is currently open 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday. Extended summer hours will begin Memorial Day. There is a nominal admission charge. Veterans, seniors, students and children six and under are free. Call (765) 689-8011 or visit GrissomAirMuseum.com for more information.

BMV partners with libraries for online registration

Comet staff report

Visitors to Indiana's public libraries can renew vehicle registrations online at the libraries' public access computers and receive the $5 discount from the Bureau of Motor Vehicles (BMV).

Cards have been sent to 462 libraries throughout the state reminding customers about the $5 discount for online renewal and provide simple instructions for getting to the BMV Web site and transacting the renewal.

Ron Stiver, Commissioner of the Indiana BMV, reported that in a survey conducted in February, 2007, 17 percent of BMV customers said that they did not have immediate access to personal computers. Stiver thanked the libraries making the online renewal option available to these Hoosiers through the public access computers.

On behalf of the Indiana Library Federation, Carl Harvey, President of the Indiana Library Federation, added, "Indiana public libraries have always strived to bring superior service and resources to their patrons as well as making collaborative connections with other organizations. In partnering with the Bureau of Motor Vehicles to provide information cards, Indiana libraries now have yet another resource to share."

The $5 discount applies to 2008 registration renewals completed online through October 31, 2008. A customer does not need a registration renewal notice to complete the transaction, but will need:

- Driver license number
- Last 4 digits of Social Security number or Federal identification number

tification number

- Current insurance information
- Valid MasterCard or Visa debit or credit card.
