

Robbins 60th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robbins of 3623 Senior Place, West Lafayette, 47906 (formerly of Delphi), observed their 60th wedding anniversary on June 15. They will have a small family celebration later this summer.

Robbins, a lifelong farmer, and the former Patricia Burbage were married June 15, 1948, in Rockfield. Mrs. Robbins was previously assessor of Carroll County, as well as a homemaker. The couple lived on their Delphi farm throughout their marriage, until recently moving to West Lafayette.

They have one son and two daughters, James Robbins (wife: Jill) of Delphi, Barbara Small (husband: Greg) of Lafayette, and Janet Scherr (husband: David) of Folsom, Calif. They also have seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Cards are welcome; no gifts please.

50th wedding anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Wagoner, 211 E. Main St., Camden, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Saturday in Bloomington with friends and family.

Wagoner and the former Pat Hogan were married June 22, 1958, at the Camden First Baptist Church. The Rev. Duncan McNabb officiated.

He is retired from Delco Electronics and now does consulting work through TAP which is affiliated with Purdue University. She was formerly a flight attendant for Braniff Airways and currently works at home.

The couple has three sons, Ron, Scott and Paul, and three grandchildren.

Comet staff report

A Carroll Jr.-Sr. High School student conducted a food drive to help with a winning project in the WRTV 6 "Oprah's Big Give Indiana" contest.

The winning project (one of two in Indiana) was Operation Heartland, submitted by Indianapolis residents and Air Force veterans, Scott and Katie Taylor. The Taylors submitted the proposal to help the organization, HVAF (Helping Homeless Veterans and Families) of Indiana Inc.

HVAF, the only organization of its kind in the state, has helped thousands of veterans break the cycle of homelessness. The Taylors learned that HVAF had acquired a 40-unit apartment building for homeless veterans of Indiana, but needed additional resources to furnish and stock the apartments.

Besides nominating the project in hopes of winning the monetary prize, the Taylors contacted their friend, Seth, of Flora, to see if he

ISP offers youth camps

Comet staff report

For more than 30 years, the Indiana State Police has offered young people an up-close look at law enforcement and the criminal justice system through its youth camps. The camps help students gain respect for themselves and others through programs, which demonstrate the rewards of hard work and dedication.

A list of the 2008 youth camp locations and dates follow. All camps are co-ed and there is a cost to attend.

Respect for Law Camp (for students entering the 5th and 6th grades)

- June 5-7, University of Southern Indiana
- June 12-14, Vincennes University
- June 26-28, Hanover College
- July 10-12, Anderson University
- July 17-19, University of Indianapolis
- July 17-19, University of Notre Dame

Lions Law Camp (for students entering 7th and 8th grades)

- June 25-28, Vincennes University
- July 9-12, Anderson University

Career Camp (for students entering 9-12 grades)

- July 6-11, Vincennes University

Campers learn teamwork skills while gaining self-confidence. The Indiana State Police camp programs teach students that discipline is a pre-requisite in gaining self-respect, and self-respect is the first step in gaining the respect of others. For more information or to download a camp application, visit the Indiana State Police website at www.in.gov/isp/2670.htm or call the Indiana State Police Youth Services toll free within Indiana at 888.477.9688.
