Tippecanoe Tornados

Registration for Tippecanoe Tornados homeschool soccer and volleyball teams for the fall 2008 season runs through July 7. Registration is open to home-educated boys and girls ages 12 through high school.

For registration forms, fees and additional information, visit the Homeschool Unified Sports Teams of Lafayette (HUSTL, "hustle") Web site at www.hustl.org, or contact Steve Leer at (765) 471-4973 or by e-mail at tippecanoetornados@gmail.com.

HUSTL organizes athletic programs for home-educated students in Tippecanoe and surrounding counties. The Tornados compete against other homeschool and Christian school teams from across Indiana and eastern Illinois in basketball, soccer and volleyball.

Two Delphi women were among the 589 graduating students who received degrees at DePauw University's 169th commencement held May 18.

MEGAN LYNN WALTON received a Bachelor of Arts degree. She is the daughter Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Walton. JAMIE ANN NIPPLE received a Bachelor of Arts degree. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark R. Nipple. They are both 2004 graduates of Delphi Community High School.

The following area students completed degree requirements during the spring semester at Ball State University. They are:

DANIELLE HAMBY, Bringham, Master of Arts in education.
REANNA MORRISON,

Camden, Bachelor of Science degree.

JENNIFER KAUFFMAN, Delphi, Bachelor of Arts degree.

JACQUELINE FASS-NACHT, Delphi, Bachelor of Science degree.

RYNE HILLENBERG, Delphi, Bachelor of Science degree.

MARK SHANKS, Delphi, Bachelor of Science degree.

ALLISON BABB, Flora, Bachelor of Arts degree.

REED STILLER, Flora, Bachelor of Science degree.

GREGORY MANNING, Bringham, has been awarded a Founder's Scholarship to attend Mount Union College.

A 2008 graduate of Carroll Jr.-Sr. High School, he was a member of the varsity baseball team where he received multiple All-Conference and All-Loganland team awards.

Eligibility for the Founders' Award is based upon outstanding high school academic achievement and demonstrated aptitude for college on the ACT or SAT-I examinations. This award is renewable for four years as long as the recipient maintains a 3.0 cumulative grade point average and is a full-time traditional student at Mount Union.

The son of Paul and Sue Manning, he plans to pursue a major in accounting.

Area students named to the Indiana University Kokomo spring dean's list include: CHRISTOPHER D. WOLFE, Bringham; ANGELA L. POWELL and CHARLOTTE M. DROLL, both of Burlington; LEANNE J. COSSAIRT, MELISSA M. KIGER, TRISTAN D. SIEBER and AMANDA L. SNAVLEY, all of Camden; SHELBY L. ALBAUGH, JANELLE L. COX and DARCI M. HALL, all of Flora; and GREGORY L. BOWMAN and ESTHER JOY PHILLIPS, both of Rossville.

Valparaiso University student DILLON CARTER of Flora is participating in a summer study program in China. Students are visiting places of cultural, historical and economic importance such as Shanghai, Hangzhou and Beijing during the program, as well as taking classes taught by Valparaiso professors. Valparaiso offers the summer program at its Hangzhou Study Center, located in a city of more than two million people that is the capital of one of China's most prosperous provinces.

Carter is an art major. He is the son of Byron and Wyndham Carter.

LORA HANAWAY of Flora was named to the spring semester dean's list at Ball State University, Muncie.

KARA OVERHOLSER of Bringham received a $1,000 scholarship from Archer Daniels Midland Company in collaboration with the national FFA Organization.

Each year the national FFA awards more than $2 million in scholarships to its members. For the third year, ADM has partnered with FFA to offer scholarships to students who have displayed academic achievement and involvement with extracurricular activities.

Overholser plans to attend St. Louis University in the fall to study biological sciences. The daughter of Rex and Suzan Overholser, she is a member of the Carroll Jr.-Sr. High School FFA chapter.

Superintendent of public instruction takes a quick look at Delphi summer school

Dr. Suellen Reed visited Delphi High School briefly to observe summer school classes last week. Reed said she was in the area visiting another school corporation and in an effort to save fuel in traveling, she decided to make a stop in Delphi while in the area. Reed said she wanted to assess how different school systems creatively solve funding problems to continue to provide needed classes. Pictured, in front of the high school as they were preparing to depart Delphi, are DePauw summer intern Jessica Ash and Reed. Comet photo by Debbie Lowe

Barnyard Boot Camp to address farm safety and kids

Comet staff report

Children ages 8 to 13 are invited to attend Barnyard Boot Camp, a farm safety day, to be held Aug. 2 and sponsored by ADM Grain Company-Logansport.

Each year approximately 300 children are killed and 23,500 are injured on farms.

The camp is designed to address important safety issues.

Groups will rotate through ten different farm and home hazard stations with hands-on demonstrations to help reinforce safety rules. These stations include: Farm Equipment Safety, Animal Safety, Lawn Mower Safety, Grain Flow Safety, Chemical Safety, First Aid, Food Safety, Blind Spots and Buckling Up, ATV Safety, and Boat and Water Safety. Children will learn about these hazards and ways to protect themselves on the farm.

For more information, contact ADM Grain Company-Logansport at 1-800-552-3306.

Library

Camden Public

"Catch the Reading Bug" summer reading club is moving along with Miss Deb, who is teaching the children about many bugs and insects through stories and songs. Last week's program was called "Creepers" and was on caterpillars. This week's program will be "Top and Bottom" on Butterflies. Storytime is held Wednesdays at 1:30 p.m.

The Carroll County on the Same Page selection, "Animal, Vegetable, Miracle" by Barbara Kingsolver is catching on as a great summertime read. Copies are available at the library. A book discussion will be held at the library at 9:30 a.m. July 30.

Delphi Public Library

The library will be closed July 4 in observance of Independence Day. Business hours resume July 5 at 10 a.m. There will be no summer reading children's programs during the week of June 30 through July 4.

Watch fun appear before your very eyes as magician Rusty Ammerman performs "Dimension of Illusion" June 27 at 1 p.m. Children of all ages and caregivers are invited to attend the free program but must pick up a ticket in the Children's Room prior to the event.

Teens are invited to the library to hang out with friends and compete in a "Dance, Dance Revolution" dance off June 27 from 6 to 8 p.m. Quick reflexes and concentration keep you in the fun competition which focuses on fancy footwork.

An evening of Wine Tasting is filling quickly so be sure to call the library for a reservation. Jeannette Merritt from the Indiana Wine Council will present the program on July 8 at 7 p.m. Anyone 21 years of age or older should call the library to reserve a seat.

For information call the library at (765) 564-2929.

Flora-Monroe Twp.

It's time for America's birthday party! Come celebrate the Fourth of July with your preschooler at the library. Deb Foreman of Flora's United Methodist Church Playschool will have stories, a fun craft and of course - a parade! Preschool Patriotic Fun with Miss Deb will be next Tuesday, July 1, at 10 a.m.

Tomorrow (Thursday) is your opportunity to learn about the environmental "green" movement sweeping the country. Patty Leimer will introduce an easy way of living that will keep you and your family healthier. Learn how to get the toxic chemicals out of your home and how to improve your health naturally. "Green: Pure and Simple," is tomorrow evening, June 26, at 7 p.m. Check out other summer reading programs in the library. Stop by the main desk, call 967-3912, or go to our website, www.flora.lib.in.us.

Carroll County on the Same Page will be at the Carroll County Farmers Market today. Stop by our booth and find out more about the county's selection, Animal, Vegetable, Miracle by Barbara Kingsolver. Copies of the book are available at all three county public libraries.

This one book project is a joint effort of the Camden-Jackson Township Public Library, the Delphi Public Library, and the Flora-Monroe Township Public Library, encouraging Carroll County residents to read the same book while building a better community through reading and sharing of ideas. Watch the library columns for coming programs and events.

The story currently playing for Dial-a-Story is, "The Rat Princess." Friday the story changes to "The Coyote and the Bear." Call Dial-a-Story at 967-3814.

Attend horsemanship camp

Five Carroll County 4-H horse members attended the 2008 Indiana State 4-H Horsemanship Camp held June 16-20 at the Hendricks County Fairgrounds. Attending were (l-r): Front - Katie Randol, Kylie Wagoner, Brooke Beale. Back - Molly Craig and Hannah Crawford. Beale was one of the three first year attendees who received the Mike Lancaster Scholarship, which paid for one-third of the cost of the camp. At the end of the camp, Crawford and Beale received their riding group's sportsmanship award. They both received an embroidered green halter. Photo provided
