The next WEDNESDAYS IN THE WILD program, "Blooms and Butterflies of an Indiana Prairie," will be held July 16 from 1 to 3 p.m. at Eli Lilly Tippecanoe Labs. Sarah Wolf (Wildlife Habitat coordinator at Lilly) will lead a stroll through a prairie restoration giving participants a head start on identifying local butterflies for the upcoming July 19 Butterfly Count. Bring binoculars for better butterfly viewing. Meet in the baseball field parking lot south of the Eli Lilly Tippecanoe Labs' main entrance at 1650 Lilly Road. Detailed directions can be found at www.tippecanoe.com/docs/location.html.

Deep sea fishing

Harold Shupperd of Burlington is holding two red snappers that he caught while deep sea fishing in Florida. On his first day out, his goal was to catch a shark, and he did. The next day he was hoping for big red snappers, and again, he got his wish. From 40 miles out, in water 150 feet deep, he caught these big snappers, weighing more than 13.5 pounds each. Shupperd retired this year from Indiana Packers in Delphi. He caught the fish recently while he and his wife, Jan, were on a family vacation to Panama City Beach. The photo was submitted by Laurie Shupperd Wardrop, their daughter.

Announcements

LIBERTY TOWNSHIP ADVISORY BOARD will meet at 7 p.m. July 10 at the home of Trustee Mark Justice, 8469 N. 100 E., Delphi. The 2009 budget will be discussed.

SENIOR CITIZENS are invited to be guests at a monthly luncheon hosted by Delphi Presbyterian Church. Dinner will be served at 12 noon July 16 in the fellowship hall. All are invited. An elevator is available. To arrange a ride, call Susan at the church, 564-2371 between 9 a.m. - 1 p.m.

A HISTORY WALK is planned for July 18 at 7 p.m. at Ball Hill Cemetery in Democrat Township. Narrator Mark Smith will tell about the lives of various pioneers who settled the Wildcat Valley. Phyllis Porter and Irma Cook also will speak. The cemetery is located two miles east of Cutler on County Road 550S between 225E and 300E. From Cutler go east on CR 500S to CR 225E, drive south one half mile to CR 550S, then east three-tenths of a mile. The walk is sponsored by a new Cutler area association that is promoting the preservation and development of the surrounding historic and natural resources.

Anyone interested in preserving the history and developing the WILDCAT VALLEY is invited to a meeting on July 10 at 7 p.m. at the Wildcat Creek Bed and Breakfast. For more information, call 765-268-2189.

The skit "LIFE ON THE CANAL" is being presented on Sundays at 1:30 p.m. at the stationary canal boat at Canal Park, Delphi. Actors portray Reed Case and a canal boat cook. The play was written and directed by Sara Daly Brosman.

Engagements

Cesar Cediell of Lafayette and Lilia Londono of Delphi announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Laura Marcela Cediell, to Jose Lorenzo Turner of Lafayette. He is the son of Robert Turner and Emma Turner, both of Delphi.

The bride-elect, a 2004 graduate of Delphi Community High School, is employed as a secretary in the Tippecanoe County Prosecutor's Office.

Her fiancé is also a 2004 graduate of DCHS. He is employed by Toyota Tsusho of America.

The couple are high school sweethearts and are the parents of two children, Kailey Michelle, age 4, and Jaden Jose, 1, who will both be participating in the wedding as the couple's flower girl and ring bearer. The wedding will be held Aug. 30 at Radnor United Methodist Church. A reception will follow at the Wabash & Erie Canal Conference & Interpretive Center in Delphi.

After the wedding the couple will travel to Cancun, Mexico, for their honeymoon.

Community Thank You

Thanks community
Thank you can never be said enough to all of our wonderful and caring neighbors, friends and family. The response and attendance to the benefit dinner and raffle was so overwhelming to us. We just hope everyone knows how truly grateful we are.

HOOSIER HOME COOKIN' with Allison Meadows

There's nothing better than a great salad on a hot summer day. Over the next few columns, I'll share some of my favorites. This week I'll start with the best dressings ever, including two of the raspberry version. Creamy Raspberry Dressing is rich, yet surprisingly low-fat. And, you'll love the traditional Raspberry Vinaigrette, so much better than the bottled version. Both Red Pepper Vinaigrette and Blueberry Dressing are great served as marinades or over veggies, as well as an awesome salad topper. The blue version is a great way to use those Michigan berries that are in season just about now. Happy eating!

Creamy Raspberry Dressing
1 C. plain low fat yogurt
1/2 C. raspberries
1 T. red wine vinegar
2 tsp. white sugar

In a blender, combine all ingredients and blend until smooth. Refrigerate for a few hours before serving.

Raspberry Vinaigrette
1/2 C. vegetable oil
1/2 C. raspberry wine vinegar
1/2 C. white sugar
2 tsp. Dijon mustard
1/4 tsp. dried oregano

1/4 tsp. ground black pepper
In a jar with a tight fitting lid, combine all ingredients and shake very well.

Red Pepper Vinaigrette
1 red bell pepper, seeded and cubed
1/4 C. balsamic vinegar
1/2 C. olive oil
2 T. honey
1 pinch salt
1 pinch ground black pepper
Place all ingredients in a blender and puree until smooth.

Blueberry Salad Dressing
1/2 C. fresh or frozen blueberries
1/2 C. water
4 tsp. sugar
1 T. olive oil
1/2 tsp. fresh lemon rind
1/4 C. lemon juice
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. fresh ground black pepper
Combine all ingredients in a small bowl and stir well. Cover and thoroughly chill.
