DCHS Band to perform at Purdue Band Day

Purdue's annual All-American High School Band Day on Saturday will sample the wide range of music bands love playing and Americans love hearing. Twenty-eight bands, including Delphi Community High School Band under the direction of Jay Dennison, will fill the field with color and pageantry at the Purdue vs. Central Michigan game. Ishbah Cox, the Purdue "All-American" Marching Band's newest assistant director, is helping with plans for the massed band halftime show featuring nearly 1,700 performers.

As a music educator, Cox appreciates the win-win scenario set up by events like Band Day. "From the university's perspective we have the opportunity to connect to high school groups and it allows the high school kids to be exposed to Purdue. It's a nice connection all the way around." Part of the tradition of Purdue's "All-American" Band Day has been to invite a veteran educator to serve as guest conductor. This year the honor goes to Gary Wishmeyer, longtime band director at Ben Davis High School in Indianapolis. In preparation for Band Day, the high school bands work independently on the music to be performed at halftime. Early Saturday morning all the bands meet at Purdue's drill field for an intensive rehearsal with Wishmeyer. When the high school bands enter the field, Ross-Ade will become a sea of musicians stretching from end zone to end zone for the massed bands' performance of "Aztec Fire," "Greased Lightnin'," and a medley of "America the Beautiful" and "You're a Grand Old Flag."

Oracle JV routs Sheridan

Just about every Delphi defender caused or recovered a turnover. Jay Moudy recorded his second career catch and gained positive yardage, raising his total career receiving yards to net 1 yard. The Oracles are 2-1 on the season. Their next opponent is Sheridan on Monday.

Library

Flora-Monroe Twp.
 The final event of Carroll County on the Same Page will be tonight at 7 p.m. at the Camden Public Library. "Harvest" will feature veteran gardeners from the area sharing ideas on herbs, organic tips, and will even share a few sample recipes from the book, "Animal, Vegetable, Miracle," the county's 2008 selection. Copies of "Animal, Vegetable, Miracle," are available at the library's main circulation desk. While you're in the library sign up for a library card! September is National Library Sign-Up Month, and the Flora Library wants to remind you that the smartest card is at your library. The campaign also reminds people that public libraries are partners for vibrant and educated communities, essential for a free people and places of opportunity. More information on receiving a library card is available at the main desk. The theme for the next storytime will be Apples. What is the best fruit in fall? Apples! Eat an apple a day while you read fun stories and listen to the famous story of Johnny Appleseed. Preschool storytime is Tuesday morning at 10 a.m. Call Dial-A-Story anytime day or night to hear an entertaining short story. The number is 967-3814.

Coffee Beat heats up with Southern Oblivion

Delphi Public Library's Coffee Beat scheduled for Sept. 20 will feature the sounds and styles of Southern Oblivion. This band is far more than three guys strumming guitars. Accomplished musicians, the Alexander brothers add a new dimension to the band's guitar-based sound, with Dennis alternating between driving bass and mandolin, and Rick's intricate solos, soulful dobro and harmonica. The music starts at 7 p.m. The coffee and music are free and desserts are available for a nominal fee. Guests should enter the library through the Indiana Street entrance and continue to the 3rd floor mezzanine for an evening of great entertainment. Photo provided
