runners from gaining big returns.

Eller rushed 14 times for 37 yards. He also was 8 of 23 for 126 yards, with most of the yards in the first half.

CC's defense shut down the Cougar rushers.

The Cougars must rebound and get ready for the Gophers from (3-2) Clinton Prairie - a home conference game Friday night at 7. Homecoming will be celebrated.

Educational Foundation winners

The Educational Foundation of Delphi Community Schools has announced the winners of its recently held raffle. The Foundation raises money through fundraising events, as well as gifts and donations, in order to benefit students through classroom grants. Pictured, left to right, are: Sharon Smith, raffle co-chair, Marsha Baker, winner, and Janet Smith, raffle co-chair. Baker won a 42" flat screen TV. Bill Dittman and Tim Atkinson each won half of a hog. Photo provided

Fall Sports Summaries

Oracle ladies win two

The 7th grade lady Oracles A team recently defeated both Wainwright and Frontier.

At Wainwright the Oracles out hustled and out played their hosts to win 16-21, 21-14, 15-12. They were led in serving by Faith Maxwell who scored 13 service points, Olivia Bieghler had 11 service points, 4 ace serves and assists and Emma Carpenter had 14 service points, 2 aces and multiple kills.

Against Frontier the Oracle A team came out on top, 25-15, 25-9, for their second victory in a row. They were led in serving by Maxwell with 19 service points and 4 ace serves and Danielle Allen with 11 service points and 5 ace serves.

B-team

The B-team worked hard but was defeated 10-21, 9-21 by Wainwright. The Oracles were led in serving by Kelli Claiborne with 4 service points and 2 ace serves and Ashley Mills with 5 service points and 2 ace serves.

The team played an exhibition game against Frontier. They hustled and played hard but eventually lost 9-15.

Sheridan JV blanks Oracles

Delphi's junior varsity football team was defeated Monday night by Sheridan.

Defensively, the team rallied to hold the Blackhawks to 6 points in the second half. First half pitfalls proved too much to overcome.

Oracle doubles team proves sure bet

The Oracle tennis team defeated Hoosier Conference foe Rensselaer in an exciting 3-2 match last week. Cinching the win for the Oracles was the #2 doubles team of James Wethington and Caleb Beighler in a cliffhanger 3-set, third set tiebreaker win. #2 singles Nick Zink won in 2 sets, 6-2, 6-3 and the #1 doubles team of Andrew Flora and Benoit Gaffard won in 2 sets, 6-2, 6-0.

Winning for the JV were Trey White, Quinton Pearson and Tyler Smith.

DCHS Band performs at Purdue

Delphi Community High School Band under the direction of Jay Dennison, was one of 28 bands that participated Saturday in Purdue's annual All-American High School Band Day. The bands participated independently on the music and all together Saturday morning before the game. Guest conductor was Gary Wishmeyer, longtime band director at Ben Davis High School in Indianapolis. Photo provided
