Approximately 600 people were served pork chop dinners at Sunday's benefit for Carroll Manor. "We were very pleased and overwhelmed by the attendance and support that Carroll Manor received from the community, not only for the dinner but for the open house as well," said Janet Smith of Indiana Packers Corp., dinner sponsor. "It was exciting to see individuals, businesses, and organizations working together and supporting this event and Carroll Manor. We are still counting the receipts." Carroll County Ag Association helped out too by cooking the meat. Dale Snipes photo for the Comet
