Business Briefs

Auctioneer MARVIN MOHLER and wife, Kathryn, will be moving to Washington state this winter. Mohler worked as an auctioneer in this area for 30 years.

He started conducting auctions in 1978 with the late Keith Wagoner. In 1984, Dwaine Ward came aboard, and he will continue doing auctions. Mohler said he is keeping his Indiana license and will occasionally help Ward.

DR. BRIAN D. WAGONER of Drs. Wagoner & Wagoner, PC in Flora recently returned from an extensive and comprehensive seminar focusing on successful denture fabrication. Dr. Jack Turbyfill, one of the most recognized doctors in that area of expertise, shared knowledge and experiences that have to be considered in a successful treatment process.

Important Announcement from the Federal Communications Commission
After Feb. 17, 2009, any TV with an analog-only tuner will require a converter box to receive full power over-the-air broadcasts with an antenna because of the Nation's transition to digital broadcasting. Analog-only TVs should continue to work as before to receive low power, Class A or translator television stations, cable and satellite TV services, and with gaming consoles, VCRs, DVD players, and similar products.
Information about the DTV transition and about subsidized coupons for converter boxes is available at www.DTV.gov and www.dtv2009.gov, or by calling 1-888-DTV-2009.
