

Delphi bloodmobile stop exceeds 50-unit goal

Comet staff report

A Red Cross blood drive sponsored by the Beta Psi chapter of Psi Iota Xi sorority Jan. 29 at Honan Hall in Delphi received blood from 60 community members. A total of 52 units of blood were donated exceeding the 50-unit goal.

The following individuals were presented with pins: Angie Murray, Vicki Criswell and Irene Pyle, all of Delphi, two-gallon pins; Gary Cleaver of Delphi, three-gallon pin; Tina Isaacs of Delphi and Gerald Peters of Bringham, seven-gallon pins; and Carol Flora of Delphi, eight-gallon pin.

Delphi resident Randi Flora was a double-red donor.

Individuals from Camden, Battle Ground, Bringham, Burrows, Flora and Logansport also donated.

EH sponsors public programs

Carroll County Extension Homemakers invites the public to attend one or all three of the following programs on Thursday, March 5, at the 4-H building.

10:00 a.m. - "Gardening to Save" - Easy container-gardening ideas to save trips to the store and add spice to life.

This lesson shares tips to grow herbs ready to use in the kitchen and ways to preserve them for later use.

7 p.m. - "Cooking for One or Two" - One and two-person households are a growing sector in our nation. Although everyone needs a variety of foods to stay healthy, sometimes cooking for one or two may seem like it's not worth the trouble. This lesson will help plan for more convenient and economical cooking, cut favorite recipes down to size, shop for good nutrition and value, and creatively use leftovers. Those attending this session are asked to bring their favorite spice/ condiment for sharing ideas with others.

7 p.m. - "Life is Short -

Wear Your Party Pants" - Too many people live their lives as if they're sitting in a waiting room, hoping that their turn will come up next. Remember that life is not something to be endured; but something to be truly appreciated. This program will investigate 10 simple truths that everyone knows, but fails to implement or remember on a daily basis. Come and explore 10 ways to live life to the fullest and minimize potential regrets - and be sure to wear those party pants!

Habitat seeks partner family

Comet staff report

Carroll County Habitat for Humanity is looking for a "partner family" for 2009. Those interested who are in need of an interest free home and are willing to put in the sweat equity hours necessary to obtain same, should attend one of the following meetings at the Delphi Public Library: Feb. 26 at 6 p.m. or Feb. 28 at 10 a.m. Monthly house payments, including taxes and insurance, are approximately $350 a month.

Accomplished swimmer visits CES

Mike Wood (pictured left) spoke to Carroll Elementary third graders about his 12-hour swim across the English Channel. His visit was prompted by the students reading a biography about the first female to swim across the English Channel. He shared a video, photographs, maps, his swimming attire, and certificates honoring his accomplishment. Photo provided

Business Briefs

WATER TOWER PLACE APARTMENTS in Delphi recently won the Prodigy Award from the Indiana Apartment Association for the "Best Apartment Designed for the Physically Challenged."

The sixteen, one-story duplexes were developed by Area IV Development and opened in late 2007.

The mission of Area IV is to provide community economic development and affordable housing projects that benefit low and moderate-income people, older adults, physically and mentally disabled, homeless persons and the special needs population who reside in mid-northwestern Indiana.

For information contact property manager Norene Finn at (765) 564-4400.

DR. BRIAN D. WAGONER of Flora recently returned from a two-day seminar in Chicago sponsored by W.G. Sutherland Temporomandibulo Cranial Dental Group. Structural abnormalities have been shown to directly affect normal function of the temporomandibular joint (TMJ). Over the years the doctor has found that minor manipulations can be significant in the relief and correction of these abnormalities and the associated discomfort. Dr. Wagoner has been a member of this study group that meets four times a year for the past twenty-five years.
