

Schwarzkopf 25th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Schwarzkopf of 1628W. 300N., Camden, IN 46917 celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on Tuesday.

Schwarzkopf and the former Lori Trapp were married April 7, 1984, at Faith Church of Christ in Burlington.

He is employed as a national sales representative for SunStar Hybrids and she is employed as a fourth grade teacher at Delphi Community Elementary School.

They have two children, Kyle, a Purdue University student, and Kara, at home.

The couple celebrated with friends by taking a trip to Las Vegas, Nev., last November.

It's hard to believe that Easter is this Sunday! Along with your holiday traditions, consider including a few of the sweet treats found in this week's column. For a delicious holiday brunch, include a few Homemade Jelly Doughnuts, rich and decadent with their vanilla icing. Cherry Delight is a mainstay for many family get-togethers. This recipe is reminiscent of the original that first appeared in women's magazines of the 1960s. And finally, get the kids involved in a fun cake that's assembled, rather than baked. Easy Easter Pound Cake Dessert will be a crowd pleaser.

Happy Easter and happy eating!

Homemade Jelly Doughnuts

- 1 (10-oz.) can refrigerated buttermilk fluffy biscuits
- 10 tsp. raspberry jelly (or your favorite flavor)
- 2 T. sugar
- 1 tsp. cinnamon
- 1 T. melted butter
- 1 C. powdered sugar
- 2 T. milk
- 1/2 tsp. vanilla
- pinch salt

Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Grease an 8" square pan or a 9" round pan. Separate dough into 10 biscuits and cut a slit in the side of each biscuit to form a deep pocket. Fill each pocket with about 1 tsp. of the raspberry jelly, then press edges firmly to seal. Arrange filled biscuits in prepared pan. Mix sugar and cinnamon and sprinkle over biscuits, then drizzle with melted butter. Bake at 400 degrees for 15-20 minutes until golden brown. Blend powdered sugar, milk, vanilla and salt until smooth. Drizzle over warm rolls.

1960s Cherry Delight

- 2 C. graham cracker crumbs
- 1/4 C. melted butter
- 1/3 C. chopped pecans
- 2 C. whipping cream
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 1/2 C. powdered sugar
- 2 C. miniature marshmallows
- 1 (16-oz.) can cherry pie filling

In a large bowl, combine graham cracker crumbs, butter, and pecans, mixing well and reserving 2 tablespoons of mixture. Press 2/3 in bottom of 13x9 pan. Set aside. In another large bowl, combine cream, vanilla, and powdered sugar and beat until thickened. Fold in marshmallows. Spread half of this mixture over the crust in pan. Top with cherry pie filling. Top with remainder of marshmallow mixture. Sprinkle with reserved crumb mixture. Cover and chill for 4-5 hours before serving.

Easy Easter Pound Cake

- 1 (10 3/4-oz.) pkg. frozen pound cake
 - 1 (21-oz.) can pie filling
 - 1 (12-oz) tub of nondairy whipped topping, thawed
 - 1 C. shredded coconut
 - Green food coloring
 - Jelly beans and Easter candies
- Slice cake into half inch slices. Line bottom of 13x9 baking dish with pound cake. Top with pie filling (strawberry, peach, lemon, cherry and blueberry are good). Cover with whipped topping. Refrigerate for at least 1 hour. Tint coconut green and sprinkle over cake. Decorate with jelly beans and Easter candies.

A mid-day service of reflection upon the cross, with music and prayer, will be held at noon at Flora First Christian Church, South Center Street.

Pastor Rex Charles of Flora United Methodist Church and Bringham United Methodist Church will deliver the message, "The Eighth Word from the Cross." Special music selections will be presented by Kris Seaward, soloist, and by members of a community chorus that is part of the Sunrise Service Cantata.

An evening Good Friday service will be led by youth from community churches as they present the story of Christ's final day and Crucifixion through scripture, traditional hymns, praise music, drama, and video presentation.

The service will be held at 7 p.m. at Living Faith Church of the Brethren, 310N 250W, just north of State Road 18 between Flora and Delphi.

For more information on these two services, contact Pastor Sam Davenport, Flora First Christian Church, 967-4246, or Pastor Jeff Tomson, Living Faith Church of the Brethren, 967-4216.

Easter Sunrise Service

The annual Easter Sunrise Service, sponsored by the Flora Area Ministerial Association, will feature the cantata, "The Resurrection and The Life." The Sunrise Choir is made up of area church choir members who have assembled together for more than 30 years.

The service will begin at 6:30 a.m. at Flora United Methodist Church, 107 E. Main Street.

"The Resurrection and The Life," created by Deborah Craig-Claar and Robert Sterling, with arrangements and orchestration by Robert Sterling, is described by its publisher as: "A collection of dramatic musical scenes from the life of Christ." The cantata celebrates and highlights through song, scripture, and narration: the baptism of Christ by John the Baptist, the gathering of children with Jesus, the healing of Jairus' daughter, Christ's triumphant entry into Jerusalem, the Passover in the Upper Room, the arrest in the garden, the Crucifixion, and the Resurrection.

"The Resurrection and Life" borrows from the rich history of Christian music with contemporary pieces, "In Remembrance," "Shout to the Lord," "In Your Name," "You are My All in All," along with majestic arrangements of more traditional hymns of praise, "The Road of Sorrows," "Thy Will, Not My Will" and "The Wondrous Cross." The cantata and choir are directed by David Kitchell.

The service will be followed by a breakfast at 7:30 in the church's fellowship hall. An offering will be received to carry out united ministry through the Flora Area Ministerial Association. The community is invited to attend.

Flora First Christian

Flora First Christian Church will hold its annual Maundy Thursday Communion Service at 7 p.m. Thursday evening in the church's sanctuary. The service of hymns, scripture, prayer and the Lord's Supper will feature dramatic readings of "those who were there."

The church's Easter Service will begin at 9:30 a.m. Sunday. Transitional Pastor Sam Davenport's morning message is titled "Behold . . . the Living." This will complete his Lenten and Easter series, "Behold the Man!"

The congregation's Chancel Choir will present special anthem selections, "Antiphonal Alleluia," "Christ the Lord is Risen Today," and "Thy Will Not My Will." A girl's quartet composed of Caitlin Pickens,

Samantha Pickens, Shelby Spray, and Jessica Wells will sing "Above All."

The service will conclude with the celebration of Holy Communion.

Childcare is provided for infants and toddlers, and a junior worship program is offered to pre-schoolers and children through second grade.
