Reading Recovery students receive books

Eighteen Delphi Community Elementary School (DCES) first graders have received books in memory of Susan Nierstheimer. The students completed the Reading Recovery program, an early intervention program that helps struggling readers learn to read and write. The students met from 12-20 weeks for one-on-one tutoring with a specially trained Reading Recovery teacher. Each child was presented a commemorative book bag with four books that were selected to further develop strategies learned through Reading Recovery. Nierstheimer was an assistant professor in literacy and language at Purdue University who lost her battle with cancer in 2005. She strongly believed in the Reading Recovery Program and her family and a friend are honoring her request that books be given in her name. Book recipients and DCES staff and administrators pictured (l-r) are: Front - Kaalyn Sandifur, Micah Myers, Austin Parker, Sandra Martinez, Juan Piceno, Devan Myers, Michael Torres, Bryan McCarty, and Brian Wood. Back - Sharon Brothers (Reading Recovery teacher), Joe Brown (assistant principal), Memphis Horton, Bryan Navarette, Austin Smith, Jamison Conner, Emily Collier, Max Snoeberger, Kenny Fields, Bill Shidler (principal), and Becky Emerson and Pam VanSickle (Reading Recovery teachers). ## ArchiCamp offered at Delphi ArchiCamp, an award-winning program, encourages children to use their imaginations and powers of observation while teaching them about history, architecture, and renovation.

The program comes to Delphi on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 23 and 24, sponsored by Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana, the Wabash & Erie Canal Interpretive Center, and the Delphi Preservation Society.

Participants in the two-day ArchiCamp spend both days, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., discovering the fascinating history of Delphi and its landmark architure. The camp, based at the Canal Interpretive Center, is for children ages 8-12.

Campers will travel back in time to the nineteenth century to a working farm where they'll work as a team to raise a model timber frame barn. At the farm, kids will try their hand at historic building trades like sawing logs, splitting shingles, and cutting wooden pegs. After a hard day's work they'll travel in a horse-drawn wagon for lunch and climb aboard a canal boat for a tour of the Wabash & Erie Canal.

This is the third year for the Delphi ArchiCamp. Historic Landmarks Foundation, developer of ArchiCamp, won a prestigious award from the American Association of State and Local History for the program. ArchiCamps have been offered in cities throughout the state.

Cost of the camp is $30 and includes refreshments, educational materials, and souvenirs. Campers should bring a sack lunch both days. To ensure personal attention, enrollment for the camp is limited to 20 children. Reservations are required by June 19; contact Suzanne Stanis at Historic Landmarks Foundation, 800-450-4534 or stanis@histori-landmarks.org.

Absolutely.

"One caveat. After practicing for over 45 years, and 1000's of hours of advanced education with the masters of dentistry, we've chosen to practice things we enjoy doing and are good at. We love promoting healthy mouths through general dentistry as well as building beautiful smiles and restoring complex cases. If you have a smile that is not all you want it to be, or have broken, chipped, unsightly or missing teeth and would like to better understand the choices available - we would love to help!"

CHRISTOPHER CLEM of

Cutler has completed eight weeks of supervised on-the-job training at Rodkey Brothers, Inc., a New Holland dealer in Rossville.

Clem completed requirements of the Illinois Central College (ICC) Diesel Powered Equipment Technology Program and graduated with an Associate in Applied Science degree in May.

On-the-job training provided the students an opportunity to apply the skills they have acquired during their freshman year of training at ICC. Participating students were required to perform many of the same tasks as full-time technicians of the business.

Clem was supervised at Rodkey Brothers by lead technician Chris Martin.

Clem, a graduate of Rossville High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Clem.

LORI SMITH of Cutler received her Bachelor of Science degree in political science from Saint Joseph's College in Rensselaer on May 2. She has been accepted into Valpo University School of Law beginning in the fall.

She participated in many activities, including the only woman to drive in the Little 500 on campus in 2008. She was nominated as Senator of her dorm, was president of Students In Free Enterprise for two years and president of the Volleyball Club for two years. She also was on the Dean's List all three years of college.

She is the daughter of Craig and Dana Smith and granddaughter of Eileen Smith, all of Cutler.
