We owe a debt of gratitude to so many people for their kindness and sympathy during the loss of our husband and father, Clifford Baldwin. For the cards, food, visits at the funeral home and our home and for your kindness we thank our many friends and family. Your support meant so much to us during this time. We would especially like to thank Carl Abbott and Abbott Funeral Home for being so compassionate and helpful. To the many members of the Delphi Tri Township and other Fire Departments we wish to express our thankfulness for your visits at the funeral home, the Last Call ceremony and the beautiful tribute of the fallen firefighter and the large flag hung by the ladder trucks as we left the funeral. This would have meant so much to Clifford for he loved to serve with his fellow firefighters. We also wish to acknowledge the American Legion and the VFW for their service to honor Cliff at the funeral and at the cemetery.
