10 YEARS AGO

Two petitions are being passed in the county – one to replace Wilson bridge and one to restore it. Those who believe the bridge should be replaced say the road is heavily traveled and a new bridge is needed to handle school buses, farm machinery, fire trucks and other emergency vehicles. Those who want to restore the bridge are concerned with safety, too. They cite a feasibility study that shows the bridge can be rehabilitated to a 12-ton limit, which would accommodate school buses, farm machinery, etc.

The Delphi City Council continued consideration of the closing of the railroad crossing at Dodge Street. The Nov. 4 meeting presented an opportunity for both proponents and opponents to the closing, to voice their views on the subject.

25 YEARS AGO

Ken Red Elk of Camden was the lone Democrat to buck the Republican landslide at yesterday's General Election in the county, state and nation.

He was one of three elected to the County Council, at large. Republicans elected from the six-person slate were Mary Catherine Carter and Kenneth Yeakley.

Miss Agnes Louise Smith, a student at Hanover college has the distinction of being the first girl member they have ever permitted in the band at that school. The band there has had a rule against girl members, but Miss Smith was so proficient on her baritone saxophone that they set aside the rule in her case.

100 YEARS AGO

William Cole of Burlington, a brick layer, engaged in the construction of the new Presbyterian church at Burrows, met with a painful accident Friday afternoon in which he narrowly escaped death. Mr. Cole was on a scaffold at work on the wall above the windows when in some manner he lost his balance and fell, a distance of probably eighteen feet and sustained a terrible gash in his forehead. Mr. Cole was able to resume his work the next morning.

Donald the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wallace, of Camden is in a serious condition at the home of his parents as the result of having swallowed several tablets containing strychnine which the little fellow thought were candy. Medical assistance was summoned at once and it was only after most strenuous efforts of the attending physicians that he rallied from the effects of the deadly drug. However, although, the little fellow is still in a dangerous condition, it is thought that he will recover.
