Three-time winner of Carroll High School's best defensive football player award Dean Orem has been chosen the most valuable player in the 32-school Region 4 of the Indiana Football Coaches' Association.

The region includes Classes AAAA, AAA, AA and A schools with Carroll a member of Class A, the smallest classification.

Carroll County experienced record low temperatures over the weekend. Sunday morning the lowest temperature was 23.5 degrees below zero, ac-ording to Joseph Peterson, official county government weather observer. The wind chill factor ranged from minus 50-80 degrees throughout the day.

Extremely cold weather is blamed for the grain bin which burst sometime between midnight and 6 a.m. at the Andersons east of Delphi. The bin contained 440,000 bushels of corn. When the steel bin broke, it destroyed receiving and shipping conveyors affecting total operation of the elevator. It is expected the elevator will be able to receive grain again by March 1. Early damage estimates have been set at $3/4 million. Because the corn is of good quality and because of the cold weather, they expect no deterioration and anticipate salvaging 95 percent of the grain.

time of the Carroll-West Central game. Her escort was Mike Thompson.

For the information of its patrons Mr. McMahan, cashier of the Farmers' State Bank at Camden, informs us that the Auditor of the state in a letter to him, states that there is no clause in the statutes making it unlawful for an person to issue checks for any amount less than $1.00. The report has been going the rounds of the press for some time that it would be unlawful after January 1, 1910 for the issuing of checks for less than $1.00, hence the above information.

Dr. E. E. Blickenstaff, who has been engaged in the practice of dentistry in this city for several years, and who was considered one of the permanent fixtures of the place, sprung a surprise last week by selling his practice and office fixtures to a Mr. Metsker of the Rossville neighborhood, who will take charge Feb. 11th. Mr. Blickenstaff will move to his father's farm adjoining the town of Idaville, Ind., where he will raise corn and hogs and try to regain his former health.
